Mr. Andrew T. Falkiewicz
• Assistant to the Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, DC 20505

Dear Mr. Falkiewicz:

We understand the CIA may be willing to send speakers to universities.

We would like to ask if your agency would be interested in sending a speaker to visit and speak here. We are mainly interested in two topics:

- 1) the collection and interpretation of intelligence data; and
- 2) the relationships between CIA and various external control sources in both the Executive Branch and the Congress.

We would prefer a Monday-Tuesday visit, from now through April. This person would meet with a graduate course on Foreign and Defense Policy Making from 1-4 Monday afternoon, and with an undergraduate class on American Foreign Policy, Tuesday, 9:30-11 a.m. Faculty members would, of course, wish to meet with the speaker more informally.

If this type of visit is feasible from your point of view, we would be pleased to work out specific arrangements.

Sincerely,

David M. Olson
Chairman
